

CRIMINAL CASES DOWN FOR TRIAL

Nearly Three Hundred Cases Are on the List for the Coming Term.

MANY OTHERS HAD TO GO OVER

District Attorney Jones Has Asked the Court to Call in Another Judge That Three Courts May Be Kept Running--Van Horn Murder Case Is Set Down at the Head of the List for the Second Week.

District Attorney John R. Jones has completed the criminal trial list for October sessions. He has placed 292 cases upon the list and has asked the court to call in another judge that three courts may be kept going to dispose of this large list. He has placed all jail cases at the head of the list, that those who are in jail awaiting trial may have their cases promptly disposed of under the law. He is entitled. He has placed all the old cases on the list, as they are entitled to preference over the cases recently returned by the grand jury. The Van Horn murder case is at the head of the list for the second week.

Many new cases are not on the list because of so many old cases continued from previous terms of court on account of lengthy murder trials. Mention of this is made that parties understand why their cases do not appear on the list. All cases not appearing on the list below will be disposed of at next term. The cases set down for trial are:

HIT HIM WITH A HOE.

Fight Among the Workmen on the Mulberry Street Pave. Patrick Convey, a young man living in this city, was struck on the head with a hoe by an Italian yesterday afternoon while both men were at work on the Mulberry street pave. Convey was taken to the Lackawanna hospital, where the wound on his head was dressed by Dr. A. J. Connell. Convey, it appears, and an Italian were fighting when a second Italian came up from behind and brought down the hoe with full force on Convey's head. The scalp was cut for several inches, but the skull was not injured. Convey was knocked senseless. The Italian was taken in tow by two other workmen. Bad blood has arisen between the several nationalities represented on the pave work because of the assault.

DESSERTION AND NON SUPPORT.

Charge That Mrs. Jacob Gearhardt Brings Against Her Husband. Mrs. Jacob Gearhardt, after two years' forbearance because of the disgrace to her children, yesterday clipped the wings of her erring husband, Jacob, who in all that time has not contributed one cent toward her support. Mrs. Gearhardt went before Alderman John T. Howe and swore out a warrant for the arrest of her husband, charging him with desertion and non support. He was held under $500 bail to appear at court.

JOHN RAYMOND INSTITUTE NOTES.

Inquiries concerning the class in German are being received daily and a number have made application for admission. The teacher especially to the senior one and patrons are assured that a successful winter's work will be accomplished. One of the new features of the Institute is a course in Latin, which will be adopted to the needs of the students. Law students and drug clerks will be glad of this opportunity to begin or continue work in this direction. The reception to be held Friday evening of this week promises to be one of the most successful in the history of the association. Several hundred earnest young men from this city and vicinity will be in attendance, and although they are not the brightest side of their character, and a heart warming, hand-shaking, social time is expected. Although the reception is given especially to the new students of the Institute, yet a cordial invitation is given to all who desire to some games, good music and other ball amusements are on the programme for entertainment.

Gallagher, Robert Kernan, Andrew Walker, all of this city, and Louis Gramer, of Carbondale. Mr. Burnett is a member of the city staff of the Truth and P. W. Gallagher was formerly engaged in the newspaper business. He was for some time a valued member of the Tribune staff.

Always on Time at Davis.

Manager Davis has secured the sensational melodrama, "Always on Time," for a short season. During its long Chicago run, the press of that city were unstinted in their praises of it. "It is a clean, wholesome show, free from the clap-net and cheap melodramatic effect which are prominent in the average Western drama." is the comment of the Chicago Tribune made on the sensational melodrama, "Always on Time," during its Chicago run at Hopkins' theatre. It opens here this afternoon, for three days.

A GREAT SURPRISE IS IN STORE

for those who will go today and get a package of GILAIN-O. It takes the place of coffee at about 1/2 the cost, is a food rich in health, and can be given to the children as well as the adult with great benefit. It is made of pure grains and looks and tastes like the finest grades of Mocha de Java coffee. It satisfies every one. A cup of Gilain-O is better for the system than a tonic, because its benefit is permanent. What coffee breaks down Gilain-O does not. Ask your grocer for GILAIN-O. 10c and 25c.
